Running the API using Docker

- As this repository relies on StarDog, a license key is required. If you have a license key, place it in the app/stardog/ directory.

- With stardog ready, you can run `docker-compose up` in the main directory to build and run the required docker images.

- The API will be accessible following this link.